

all boys who
r league team
re eligible to ll play on the ere a member

re new in the never played ball here will out at the of-sion to begin ril 27.

are still need-e League and
all. All pers-
ested in coach-
o contact the ent at 5216 or

baseball reg-
picked up at
or the WAB

QUIZ

oldest indoor
United States?
country has the 1964 Oly-

l once managraves. True or league baseball

ger was known Frenchman" in

le first profes-
win 100 major
nts?

to Quiz)

5. Sam Snead
4. Lou Boudr
3. True.
2. Indonesia.
- Track Meet Ina
1. New York

have come up in the recent years through Little League and then Babe Ruth ball and then organized minor ball to finally the Big Leagues, but his emphasis was pointing mainly to the boys getting early starts under good coaching and managing as the contributing factor for the establishing of many of the new records established over those of earlier years in baseball.

the led and were never to relinquish it after that. The Flyers threatened a few times in the first half but were unable to pull abreast to the high scoring Pioneers.

Getting the scoring honors for the Pioneers were Bob Beckle with 33 followed by Taylor and Poole with 19 and 14 respectively. For the losing Flyers it was Harry Golden grabbing the top spot with 21 followed by Ron Rus-

Hahn	36-20
Ramstein	25-23
Wiesbaden	27-29
Sembach	19-29
Spangdahlem	17-39

Track Notice

Any person interested in coaching base level track is urged to contact the athletic office at 5215.

PRETTY BACKBONE ON THE WARRIOR TEAMS—These are the pretty lasses that cheered on the Warriors throughout the year and added that winning sprit that the teams possessed. They are from left to right, Sharon Purkey, Diana Dinsmore, Saundra Purkey, Katie Neece, Kay Moffat, Judy Dramer and Susie Sinclair.