NCO Wives Report

Member's Daughters to Attend Tea Dances to Be Held at Officers Club

by Margaret Cleary

Our business meeting this month will be held at 6.30 p.m. in the NCO Open Mess, Lindsey Air Station.

Miss Judy Dramer, who won the NCO Wives Club Scholarship, will be the guest of honor, accompanied by her parents Lt. Col. and Mrs. E. M. Dramer.

All NCO daughters aged 17 - 22 are cordially invited to attend a Tea Dance to be held in the Officers' Open Mess from 5-7 p.m. June 17 and July 10. All interested persons please make reservations by calling Personnel Services 5947 or 5203.

As we must sooner or later say Auf Wiedersehen to all of our friends the time has now come for Helen Budden and Deloris Beatty to leave us.

Helen has worked countless hours as our vice-president, president, and parliamentarian, and on top of these duties has always been ready to give help and advise whenever asked.

Deloris Beatty too has served so well as our secretary for a year and her helping hand will also be missed. Deloris is looking forward to living in Colorado and we wish you both Bon Voyage.

Emma Romero is still hospitalized and on the long road to recovery. Emma thanks all the girls who have cheered her stay. I hope that many more of you will visit her too, as the hospital is still a lonely place to be, even when you are over the hurdle.

Everyone who likes surprises be sure and keep June 25 a free date. Our entertainment for that afternoon will remain a mystery for a while, so put your imaginations to work!

'Visit To Small Planet' Opens at Center Thursday

"There's no business like show business."

That is the theme song of Wiesbaden Little Theater (WILT) members as they occupy every possible moment building sets, preparing make-up and props, and running through last minute rehearsals in preparation of opening night Thursday.

Gore Vidal's "Visit To A Small Planet," may be seen on June 11, 12, 13, 14, 19, and 20 at the American Community Center. The delightful satire will be the latest production of WILT, with admission set at 75 cents or DM 3 per ticket.

The lead character, Kreton, portrayed by (Al Clarey), is known as the man from "Another Place" who becomes upset to discover that he has landed in the year 1965, when he was aiming for the year 1861, for he fancied to view the Civil War.

Kreton decides that the world shall be his, but the faithful Air Force General (James Geiger) has other plans for the visi-

Delton 4 (Ron Gomalar), and two somewhat frustrated television technicians (Robert Child and Earl Coddington).
